

SHS Journalism

While every Friday night is special, Homecoming night is set apart for many reasons. Girls throughout SHS had the opportunity to run for Homecoming Court. On September 5, 2018, an assembly was held in the auditorium to connect the names and faces to the candidates for the student body. After, the decision was left in the hands of the students to decide who would make up the 2018 Homecoming Court. Freshmen representatives were Taylor Allen, Katlyn Boozer, and Kodie Thomas; Morgan Johnson, Christina Keith, and Autumn Waites were chosen as the Sophomores. The Juniors were represented by Keri Hayes, Kyla McKinney, and Taliyah Taylor; five seniors, Madison Clark, DeAsia Cook, Laurel Pope, Cassidy Terrill, and Alex White, were chosen to represent the class of 2019.

The Homecoming game was on September 21, 2018. After a stressful week of planning, preparation, and voting for Miss Homecoming 2018, the time for the big reveal had come. DeAsia Cook was crowned Miss Homecoming 2018 by former Miss Homecoming 2017, Jordan McKinney. The crowd and court cheered and sang along to the Alma Mater with DeAsia in celebration of her victory.
